

PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Karen Y. Holmes, Department Head
(757) 823-9055

The Department of Psychology offers the Doctor of Philosophy Degree (Ph.D.) in Clinical Psychology through the Virginia Consortium which is jointly sponsored by Norfolk State University and Old Dominion University. The Psychology Department also awards several undergraduate degrees which include the Bachelor of Arts Degree with concentrations in General Psychology, Teacher Certification in Early Childhood Education, and Teacher Certification in Special Education. The Psychology Department plays a significant role in the overall mission of the University by contributing to the development of students in the behavioral sciences.

The major aims of the Department are as follows:

1. To provide a flexible, relevant, and fundamentally sound curriculum for students majoring in psychology.
2. To prepare students thoroughly to render services initially as entry-level professionals, teachers, and behavioral scientists.
3. To provide a thorough behavioral science background for students whose expertise can be utilized in related human service fields of employment.
4. To prepare students to work as professional psychologists.
